

Cookies policy

Introduction

Synolnt activities on the internet meet the appropriate internet activity related requirements of international regulations, European Union regulations and the Republic of Lithuania regulations.

Synolnt appreciates your confidence in us and we are committed to protecting and managing your personal data, sensitive personal data and non-personal data responsibly.

Below is information about how Synolnt processes your data and information using cookies in this and others Synolnt websites.

1.INFORMATION ABOUT COOKIES

1.1. A cookie is a text-only string of information that is saved to your computer's hard disk through your web browser, so that the website can remember who you are. Cookies cannot be used by themselves to identify you. A cookie will typically contain the name of the domain from which the cookie has come, the 'lifetime' of the cookie, and a value, usually a randomly generated unique number.

1.2. The data collected will not be used to determine your personal identity or to create a link to the pseudonym under which your profile is generated without your explicit permission.

1.3. Like many websites, our websites also use cookies in order to provide you with a more personalized and organized web services. If you do not wish to receive these cookies which are in Synolnt websites then you can easily modify your web browser to refuse cookies, or to notify you when you receive a new cookie.

2.ADDITIONAL INFORMATION HOW OUR WEBSITES WORK

2.1. Every time this Synolnt website and others Synolnt websites and its contents are accessed, protocol files are created by ourselves or third parties containing access data. Each protocol file contains the following:

- The website from which you access our website;
- Your IP address;
- Date and time of access;
- The request from the customer/user;
- The http answer code;
- The amount of transmitted data;
- The browser and operating system used.

2.2. It is important to say that Synolnt does not have the means to use the specified data to identify individuals. We do not consolidate this data with other sources of data, so it means that Synolnt processes just non-personal data by cookies.
